A large smartphone screen dominates the center of the frame, its screen displaying the word "DATA" in white capital letters on a teal background. The phone has a black frame and a small camera hole at the top. In front of the phone, a small, stylized character with short grey hair and glasses, wearing a white t-shirt, holds a green book. The background is solid black, and the overall composition is minimalist and modern.

An illustration showing a person's legs and feet standing next to a large smartphone. The phone screen displays various data visualizations, including a line graph with a dashed trend line, several bar charts, and a pie chart. The background is white, and the phone has a black frame.
